Big Crowd Seen Leaders Swap Places.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., August 24.—New York assumed the leadership in the pennant race to-day by taking two games from Pittsburgh by scores of 4 to 1 and 5 to 1, before a crowd of nearly 17,000 baseball enthusiasts.

In the first contest Pittsburgh scored first in the seventh, when Wagner got to first, went to second on an error by Tenney, and scored on Abbatista's single. Willis weakened in the eighth inning, and New York got a home run, a triple, a double and two singles, netting four runs.

New York scored in the first inning of the second game on a hit, an error, a base on balls and a sacrifice. Pittsburgh scored in the fifth on a triple and an infield out, but the visitors came back in the same inning with two runs on two singles and an error.

Liedfeld was taken out in the seventh, after New York had made two runs on a single, a base on balls, a double and a sacrifice.

Willis was hit freely in his first game, but received splendid support. Mathewson pitched a splendid game.

WINCHESTER STILL WINS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., August 24.—Fredrick proved an easy proposition for the locals this afternoon, when they were defeated at Reservoir Park by the score of 10 to 2. Miller, who enjoyed the best of the visitors, was out for ten hits, including a home run and three doubles, while Tomkins for the locals only allowed eight hits, which were kept well scattered. Some great fielding was done by Brown and Mabry for the locals, while the playing of Malone for Frederick was of a high-class order.

The features were the batting of Brown, Scheller and McDonald for the locals, and Elbert for the visitors. Pitcher Montgomery, who has been with the locals all the season, has been called by his home in Louisville. Tomkins, who pitched in the American Association last year, has been signed in by Frederick, was of a high-class order.

SQUIRES FORCES FIGHT; BURNS WAITS WARILY

But in Final Round Takes Aggressive and Queers Opponent with Lightning Attacks, Till a Right-Hander to Chin Ends Things.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., August 24.—"Tommy" Burns, the champion heavyweight pugilist, again defeated "Bill" Squires, the Australian heavyweight, here to-day, knocking him out in the thirteenth round of a fast battle, which was witnessed by 20,000 persons, among them hundreds of sailors from the American battleships now in the harbor.

The betting was 6 to 1 against Squires when he entered the ring. Burns, who was the favorite, was the only one who was not knocked out by Squires. Burns followed him into the ring, and was received with cheers. When he removed his outer clothing and appeared in ring costume he appeared to be heavy and not closely trained.

The sun beat down fiercely on the open ring and Burns, who was the favorite, was the only one who was not knocked out by Squires. Burns followed him into the ring, and was received with cheers. When he removed his outer clothing and appeared in ring costume he appeared to be heavy and not closely trained.

Round 1—Squires landed on Burns's body with a hard right, which was followed by a hard left to body with another to the head. Burns retaliated with two hard blows to Squires's ribs. Squires drew first blood with a hard right to Burns's nose, and had decidedly the best of the round.

Round 2—Squires landed on Burns's body with a hard right, which was followed by a hard left to body with another to the head. Burns retaliated with two hard blows to Squires's ribs. Squires drew first blood with a hard right to Burns's nose, and had decidedly the best of the round.

Round 3—Squires landed on Burns's body with a hard right, which was followed by a hard left to body with another to the head. Burns retaliated with two hard blows to Squires's ribs. Squires drew first blood with a hard right to Burns's nose, and had decidedly the best of the round.

Round 4—Burns drew blood with terrific swings to the Australian's nose and mouth. Burns attacked strongly with swings for Burns's head. Both men were fighting terrifically.

Round 5—Squires got a terrific left on Burns's jaw, and the men clinched, being separated by the referee. Squires followed him to his corner, Squires dodging and getting away until the going sounded.

Round 6—Squires landed a heavy blow on Squires's body, the Australian replying with hard swings to Burns's jaw. Both men were bleeding when the round ended.

Round 7—Squires opened the round with a blow to Burns's chin, quickly followed with a second to the same spot. Burns dodged and sidestepped throughout the round, Squires following him up and landing frequent blows on the champion's face.

Round 8—Squires opened with a left in Burns's face. Both men fought fiercely throughout the round exchanging frequent staggering blows. Burns ## ending the round with a hard left hook to Squires's jaw.

Round 9—Squires continued on the aggressive and made the fighting in the early part of the round. Burns, however, landed punishing blows on Squires's chest, followed with left hooks to the jaw and chin.

Round 10—Squires attacked Burns fiercely and landed a hard right to the jaw and chin. Burns came back vigorously and both men were mixing it up fiercely when the going ended the round.

Round 11—Squires continued his attack and scored effectively with the right uppercut, following the blows with staggering left to Burns's nose. Burns was decidedly groggy and staggered to his seat when the going sounded.

Round 12—Squires again determined to force the fighting at the beginning of the round, Burns becoming quickly elusive, drawing his opponent on by swift sidestepping and dodging, and as the blows fell harmless, he landed the Australian with two lightning punches. He then attacked vigorously, but Squires, his fast work having plainly tired him, was glad to act on the defensive during the rest of the round.

Round 13—Burns came up strong and opened the fighting with a terrific right swing that grazed the Australian's chin, which fell into the clinch as they broke. Burns planted a half-arm blow near the point of Squires's chin, sending him to the floor.

Round 14—Squires recovered, and as he arose groggily, Burns hit him down again with a short up-blow to the forehead, and counted eight before he was able to rise, and on arising he landed a light right on Burns's ribs. The American recovered, and when it came off the Australian a right-hander on the chin that sent him down and out. The referee counted Squires out as his second threw up the sponge.

PICNIC TO-MORROW
Upper James River Valley League Plans Day of Social Enjoyment.

Members of the Upper James River Valley League, who are planning a picnic at Vinita Station, on the James River road, to-morrow. Quite a number of the members of the league from Richmond and the lower river valley will leave here over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway at 10 o'clock and return on the same train at 6 o'clock to-day. Their friends expect a day of thorough enjoyment, and hope to make the picnic an opportunity of enlarging the social life and widening the acquaintance of the residents of the upper river valley.

CRISIS IS PASSED
Allan Valentine's Condition Is Favorable and Recovery Almost Certain.

Dr. E. Timan, of Rock Castle, Va., who has been attending Allan Valentine, son of Mr. Mann S. Valentine Jr., of Richmond, stated yesterday that there was every reason to hope for a complete recovery. Dr. Timan said that Valentine's pulse and temperature are normal and his condition is in every way favorable.
